1982 Mustang Engine. As every Mustang owner knows, the heart and soul of any pony car lies in the engine. Without the engine, not only would your 'Stang not run, but it also wouldn't have any of the power expected of a classic muscle car. Owning a Mustang is so much more than just showing off its looks - it's about the revving engine, tire squealing, and speeding down the road that makes for the all-encompassing Mustang experience.
